BRIAN: When you find that your mind keeps you worried and blue

WILL: You can always let your feet keep your disposition sweet

ED: You wanna see what makes me feel the way I do?

BRIAN: Would you kindly cast an eye on two good reasons why...

Happy feet! I've got those happy feet!

Give them a low down beat and they begin dancin'

I've got those ten little tappin' toes

And when they feel a tune I can't control

My dancin' heels to save my soul

Weary blues can't get into my shoes

Because my shoes refuse to ever grow weary

I keep cheerful on an earful of music sweet

Cause I've got those hap-happy feet!

Wah dah dah dah dah!
